cphi.com/middle-east

CPHI Middle East is set to be the premier pharmaceutical event in the region, connecting regional manufacturers with international suppliers across the entire supply chain.

Global Vision for 2030:

Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030, focusing on diversifying the economy in healthcare and pharmaceuticals, aligns with Expo 2030's global reach. This partnership enhances innovation in the sector and positions Saudi Arabia as a key hub for pharmaceutical events on the global stage.

Market Expansion:

The Saudi pharmaceutical market is projected to grow significantly, with a CAGR of 5.5% until 2023 and expected to reach USD 19.76 billion by 2028.

Economic Growth:

With its rapidly diversifying economy, Saudi Arabia offers immense opportunities for the pharmaceutical industry, supported by increased healthcare spending and reforms.

Demand for Pharmaceuticals:

Increasing demand for advanced pharmaceuticals in Saudi Arabia creates opportunities for global partnerships and distribution.

The strengths of Saudi Arabia

GCC Economic Growth Forecast

2.3% in 2023, 3.2% in 2024 with a 4.6% Rise in Non-Oil Sectors.

Pharmaceutical Market Expansion

CAGR of 4.5% (2015-2020), Projected 5.0% Growth.

Major Markets

Saudi Arabia and UAE Dominate Regional Pharma (59% and 21%).

Import Dominance

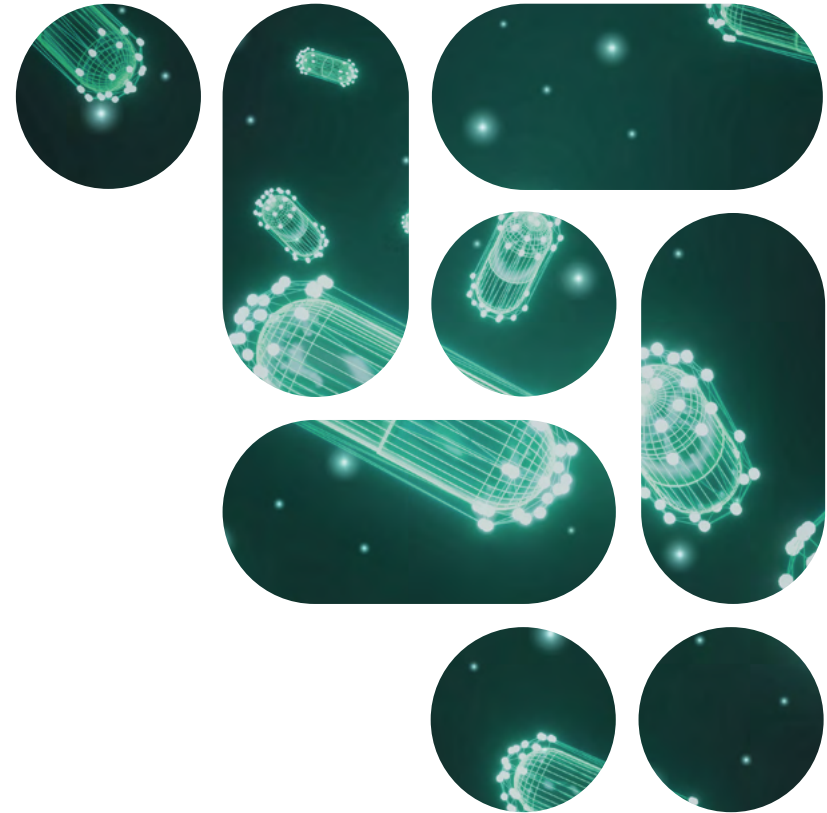

Over 80% of Regional Pharma Sales from Imports.

Market Composition

75% from Patented and OTC Pharmaceuticals.

Healthcare Expenditure Surge
