We have been adhering to the precautions and safety measures as recommended by government authorities, as well as the World Health Organisation (WHO) and are taking their guidance and recommendations seriously.

After careful consideration and consultation with Ministry of Health, Thailand, it is with regret that we announce that CPhI South East Asia, originally scheduled on 4-6 March 2020 at IMPACT, Muang Thong Thani, will be postponed in line with the efforts by the local authorities. Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience caused by such postponement.

M.
